Reply to Attn of: EA3-09-035

TO: NE141/PSRP Executive Officer, Payload Safety Review Panel
FROM: EA3/Alpha Magnetic Spectrometer (AMS) Project Manager
SUBJECT: AMS-02 Phase III Safety Data Package (SDP) Submittal

JSC 49978B Phase III Flight Safety Data Package For The Alpha Magnetic Spectrometer-02 (AMS-02), dated November 23, 2009, is being provided with this letter—a signed hardcopy and fixed media (compact disc) version. Upon your acceptance of this package, we look forward to meeting with the PSRP and SRP at the Phase III Safety Review for the AMS-02 on January 12 - 15, 2010.

In order to support distribution to international partners, the following export statement is provided:

The AMS-02 payload has been reviewed by the Department of State and has been declared public domain data under ITAR (see ODTC Case CJ 015-01). The payload has also been reviewed by the Department of Commerce and has been categorized 1A999 (see CCATS# G026926), which allows free distribution of data to foreign nationals of all countries apart from North Korea, Syria, and Sudan. All data included in this package has been reviewed and found to be in the public domain.

The AMS-02 SDP does not contain any proprietary material that requires special handling controls.
